THE TRIDENT UNITED WAY ADVANTAGE
SERVING BERKELEY, CHARLESTON AND DORCHESTER COUNTIES

• Addressing key issues affecting the entire community

• Building partnerships with other community organizations committed to real, lasting change

• Engaging more than 125 local trained volunteers make decisions on investing donor dollars to meet community needs

• Practicing effective governance led by a CEO reporting to local board of directors comprised of community thought leaders, executives and volunteers
Outcomes and Achievements

• 6,553 calls to 211 operators for connection to resources from Charleston County residents in 2018.

• Service providers utilizing CharityTracker provided $876,282 in monetary assistance in Charleston County, providing help to 18,335 people comprising 9,387 households.

• Service providers utilizing SC Thrive/The Benefit Bank of SC brought an estimated value of $4,592,500 into Charleston County through 1,837 applications.

• $2,609,223 in refunds from 994 federal & state tax returns filed for free through SC Thrive/The Benefit Bank for Charleston County residents.

• Trident United Way program investments were able to serve 118,953 individuals in Charleston County in the 2018-2019 fiscal year.

• 1,316 parents in Charleston County participated in programs to support their children's education through five of our funded partners.

• 29 educators from Charleston County schools received innovative teacher training as part of the Tri-County Reading by Third project, sponsored by Trident United Way. 415 students were taught by teachers who received this training.

• Nine companies completed a total of 28 projects in Charleston County through Trident United Way’s volunteer match system, which began in 2017.

• 3,614 volunteers completed 15,286 hours of work on 137 projects in Charleston County during 2018 Day of Caring at a volunteer time value of $169,827.36.*

*Calculated using median hourly wage for type of work performed less supervisory costs.