AFRICAN AMERICAN LEADERSHIP COUNCIL

Trident United Way African American Leadership Council (AALC) is a network of engaged African American and minority leaders in the community who seek to harness their power and philanthropy to create bold community change. We leverage resources to advance education, financial stability and health throughout the Tri-County region.

We work to solve pressing community issues through Trident United Way's education, financial stability and health initiatives.

We support Trident United Way with our time, talent and treasure — using our experiences and our voices to make a difference for our neighbors.

We network and inform by sharing data about community conditions to increase our knowledge — strengthening our collective ability to create change.
